

Workshop on US Funding Opportunities for European Research Cooperation Projects

The University of Oulu Research Support Services in cooperation with Finn-ARMA, the Finnish Association of Research Managers and Advisors, is organising a full day workshop on the funding opportunities different US funding agencies have available also for European researchers.

Time: Friday 17th June, 8.30-15.15

Venue: L2

Registration: through Staff Training Portal

Web streaming on the event date: <https://connect.funet.fi/vimma3>

Speaker:

Sandra M. Nordahl, CRA, Director, SR Contracting and Compliance and Facility Security Officer, San Diego State University Research Foundation

Programme:

Morning session: 8.30 – 11.30

Welcome and introduction to the day

Locating US funding

- National Institutes of Health (NIH)
- Food and Drug Administration
- Other options and tools to look for funding: general web searches and SPIN software

Short coffee break

Uniform Guidance

- F&A Rate – limited to 10% for US federal funding

11.30 – 12.15 Lunch break

Afternoon session: 12.15 – 15.15

Registering to receive funds

- SAM.gov
- Dun and Bradstreet

Submission Tools

- Assist
- Grants.gov

Short coffee break

Compliance Topics

- Animal Subjects
- Human Subjects
- Conflict of Interest
- Restricted Party Screening